

Illinois. On December 6, 2007, Blythe passed away while serving the people of the Republic of Suriname in South America.

After graduating from Bradley University, she decided to join the Peace Corps.

Blythe was sworn in as a Volunteer on August 3, 2006, after 4 months of intensive training. Leaving her loved ones and comfortable life in the United States behind, Blythe bravely took on the challenge of sharing her knowledge and expertise with the Brokopondo people.

As a small business and community development advisor, Blythe dedicated herself to improving the operations of a local water project and building a community center for the women in the village where she was staying.

While serving in Suriname, Blythe recognized how extraordinarily blessed we are in the United States, saying "I am so humbled by the challenges the Suriname villagers must conquer day after day. Here, each waking moment must be spent satisfying basic needs." Blythe's dedication to improving the lives of others is an example for us all.

Blythe's ready smile, compassionate care for the people of Suriname and efforts to bring them hope have affected countless lives. Blythe's efforts will forever be a tribute to her life and service.

Madam Speaker, I wish to offer my deepest sympathies to Blythe's parents, John and Joan, and the entire O'Sullivan family. They are in my thoughts and prayers during this difficult time.

Madam Speaker and Distinguished Colleagues, please join me in mourning the loss of an extraordinary young woman, Blythe Ann O'Sullivan.

CHESTO

HON. JON C. PORTER

OF NEVADA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, December 12, 2007

Mr. PORTER. Madam Speaker, I rise today to honor Robert Chesto for his support of America's fallen heroes.

Mr. Chesto has a long history of serving his community in Las Vegas, Nevada. He moved from Biloxi, Mississippi in 1955 and began the 4th grade at C.P. Squires Elementary School in Las Vegas. He then attended Tom Williams Elementary, J.D. Smith Middle School, and Rancho High School. After graduating from Rancho High School, Robert enrolled in the University of Nevada, Las Vegas majoring in Music. In 1970, after graduating from UNLV, Robert was drafted into the United States Army where he served on active duty in the Nevada Army National Guard until 1990. In 1976 he began teaching in the Clark County School District.

After retiring from the Army National Guard as a Captain, Robert went back to UNLV to pursue a degree in Education. In 2000, Robert began as Principal at his own high school, Rancho. As the Principal of Rancho High School, Robert is dedicated to honoring those who have served their country in the Armed Services. Rancho High School has become an "All American High School" with over 250 American flags decorating the school. Mr. Chesto has also dedicated himself to remembering Rancho's history by incorporating a "Wall of Honor" for the 23 Rancho graduates who were killed in action during the Vietnam War.

Madam Speaker, I am proud to honor Robert Chesto. He has not only served his country in times of war, but also committed himself to the education of our youth. His continuing dedication to his country and to the remembrance of those who have fallen serves as an example to us all.

TRIBUTE TO OLA COPELAND

HON. JOHN M. SPRATT, JR.

OF SOUTH CAROLINA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, December 11, 2007

Mr. SPRATT. Madam Speaker, I rise to call the attention of the House to Ola Copeland, an outstanding citizen of my district who recently passed away in Gaffney South Carolina, a place she called home for her entire life.

Mrs. Copeland was known best for 15 years of service on the Cherokee County Board of Education. She believed in education, and as a life-long citizen, knew Cherokee County well. Her colleagues recognized her ability, and elected her Chairwoman of the Cherokee County Board of Education, a post she held from 2003 until the day she died. During her tenure on the board, she chaired the Curriculum, Budget, and Special Needs Committees, served on the Maintenance, Property and Grounds Committee, and acted as the Board's Parliamentarian and Legislative Contact.

Despite a lengthy battle with kidney disease, the disease that ultimately claimed her life, Mrs. Copeland worked tirelessly to ensure that Cherokee County students had the best in education. To accommodate her dialysis schedule, the Cherokee County School Board reset its meeting. Just as kidney disease did not stop her serving on the board of education, it also did not prevent her from being a friendly and familiar face at school functions. The day before she was admitted to the hospital with her last illness, she attended the Gaffney High Homecoming Assembly.

Mrs. Copeland was deeply involved in her church, served on numerous boards, and was a member of various organizations that help make Cherokee County a better place. She was an organizer of Theta Beta Gamma Sorority, Inc. and a member of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc. As if serving on the county school board was not enough, she also served as an officer in the Rocky Mountain Red Hat Society, Friends of the Cherokee County Public Library, and on the board of Piedmont Community Action. She was involved in Communities in Schools, the Teenage Pregnancy Awareness Council, First Steps Board of Directors, and the Renaissance Committee at Gaffney High School.

Ms. Copeland graduated from Granard High School and earned a business degree from Limestone College in Gaffney. She is survived by two sons, two daughters-in-law, and three grandchildren. Her life was cut short and she died before her time, but if we measure life not by how long we live, but by how well, Ola Copeland lived a long, full life. She left her community better than she found it, and left her fellow citizens a legacy of service and achievement, including her sterling example of what life in a democracy is all about.

PAYING TRIBUTE TO ROBERT P.
ELLIS

HON. JON C. PORTER

OF NEVADA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, December 12, 2007

Mr. PORTER. Madam Speaker, I rise today to honor my friend Robert P. Ellis and his dedication to the Southern Nevada community.

Robert "Bobby" Ellis is the President and CEO of B&E Auto Auction, an independently-owned salvage company. It was recently announced that B&E will sell their assets to a national company, a decision that should enhance their ability to serve customers' needs in Nevada.

Bobby also founded the Coalition of Independent Salvage Pools of America in 2000, a partnership of independently owned salvage companies who make it their mission to provide reliable service, competitive pricing that benefits insurance companies, and commitment to their individual local communities and state.

Bobby proved his devotion to education by establishing the Robert and Sandy Ellis Scholarship Fund for students at Nevada State College in 2004. Robert and his wife believed that this scholarship endowment would not only help students obtain a college education, but would help the future economic growth and development of Southern Nevada. In addition to his generous donations to educational institutions, Robert has truly embraced the spirit of philanthropy and has greatly contributed to his surrounding community.

Madam Speaker, I am proud to honor my good friend Bobby P. Ellis. His steadfast loyalty to the state of Nevada is an example to us all, and I wish him continued success with all his future endeavors.
